A FAMILY AFFAIR

The names of Bach and Mozart dominated Europe for many generations. Come and explore the wonderful music of J.S. Bach and his sons and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart and his father, both of whom had a wonderful sense of humor.

MARCH 23, 2025

BEETHOVEN, EARLY AND LATE

With the first chord of his very first symphony, Beethoven shocked the Viennese aristocracy and released a new kind of energy. In his Symphony No. 8, the recent invention of the metronome proved an invaluable resource. Explore with us these joyous symphonic masterpieces.

MAY 4, 2025

PARIS RENDEVOUS

In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, Paris was a hotbed of artistic creativity. Influenced by painters and poets, composers sought a new expressive language, a language with the rough edges removed and full of new colors. This timeless music by Debussy, Ravel and Faure will be the focal point of our program as we explore the richness of that amazing era.

All concerts are presented Sunday afternoons at 3:00 pm at the Cabot Theater in Beverly.
